

HOME HOUSE HITS TWO GREAT RECORDS

Tuesday's Entire Sale Average Is $71.40 And One Complete Crop Sells At $84.90

Two great records were made when sales reopened at the Big Home House Tuesday. A figure for the day's sale, $71.40 will give them a mark to shoot at for a day's average, at any man's warehouse. Then the crop average made by Mr. Terry S. Hagan and Burton of the entire crop average of $94.90 per hundred pounds, is another mark that has not yet been approached anywhere in the burley district in this or any other year. And Messrs. Hagan and Burton sold a total of 7,415 pounds at that figure, too, which is certainly "going some."

Everybody admitted that nothing like the prices that were paid at the Home House Tuesday had ever been seen in this neck of the woods before. All records went by the board. If prices had been any better, Bill Luxon has couldn't have stood it, that's all there is to it. No man ever worked harder for the patrons of his house than Bill is doing and that he is getting the goods for them pleases him just as much as it does them and that's saying a lot for the growers are the ones who are getting the big money.

Mr. Tom Baldwin sold a part of his tobacco at the Home House Tuesday, and it sold well over 80 cents. This week isn't nearly as good as that his son, Tom Baldwin, Jr., refused 90 c a pound for several weeks ago. Just when that crop will go on the breaks is not known yet though its appearance will be watched with interest by everyone. Old tobacco experts say they never saw any as good. Vernon Leer says many told him he was a crazy fish when he offered 90 cents a young for "Young Tom's" tobacco but now they are all admitting he was a lot smarter than most of 'em. Everyone is speculating on what that famous crop is going to bring. Mr. Baldwin is said to hold it at $1.25 a pound if anyone wants to take a little sporting chance on it before it goes over the breaks.

FREEZE FOLLOWS FLOODS IN SOUTH

(By Associated Press)
Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 10.—Torrential rains, breaking all records here and at other southern points, gave way today to freezing weather, adding to the misery of the thousands made homeless by the flood waters from many rivers and small streams. Little loss of life is reported but the damage is heavy.

1919 TOBACCO CROP SMALLER THAN 1918

According to the latest available government statistics the tobacco crop of the United States for 1919 will be smaller than that of last year by 23,466,000 pounds, or 2 per cent. The November figures indicate an improvement in the crop during the month, however, amounting to 38,491,000 pounds, or 3 per cent. The average yield per acre for the current year is placed at 724 pounds, which is 78.1 pounds under the ten-year average. The estimated quality of the 1919 crop is 4 per cent lower than the ten-year average.

In Kentucky indications point to a larger crop than last year, despite the frequent assertions of tobacco authorities generally that there has been a material reduction. North Carolina and Virginia ranking next in importance, both show reduced production for this year while the Tennessee crop seems to be materially increased. In the different sections of the country early sales give every indication of a continuance of last season's high prices with a decided tendency toward higher levels.

BITTER ATTACK ON MEXICAN POLICY

Of Democratic Administration Features Opening of Republican Committee Meeting

(By Associated Press)
Washington, D. C., Dec. 10.—Gov. Sproul, in the keynote speech at the meeting of the National Republican Committee today, attacked the Administration's Mexican policy and declared the Republican party is approaching the coming presidential campaign with confidence that the people would endorse its policies, which include better relations between capital and labor, economy and business management in administration, firm handling of the Mexican situation, restoration of Americanism, and constitutional government and a sound solution of the railroad problem.

He called "our relations with Mexico a disgraceful and humiliating chapter" and asserted "the rape of the railroads, conceived in an unholy lust for power and partisan advantage" had left a complicated problem.

OHIO SENATOR'S HAT IS IN RING

Washington, Dec. 10.—United States Senator Warren G. Harding's boom for the Presidency was thrust into the full limelight Tuesday by a statement from him that within a few days he would declare himself to be a candidate for that office, "without reservations," and by resolution of indorsement on the part of the Ohio delegation in Congress.

As a result it is the impression of the "inside" comment at the meeting of the Republican National Committee that Harding shortly will take the place of Gov. Frank O. Lowden, of Illinois, as the "runner-up" in the fight to displace Major General Leonard Wood, now far in the lead in the race for the nomination.

The Illinois executive is said to be falling back because of his immense fortune, estimated to be $20,000,000, and his membership the Pullman family.

MINERS STILL TALK OVER WILSON'S PLAN

(By Associated Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 10.—The general committee of the United Mine Workers Association reconvened today to further consider President Wilson's proposal for ending the coal strike. It is generally expected that 14 per cent wage increase and appointment of a commission of three to adjust wages, as the President proposed, will be accepted before their adjournment.

The conference recessed at noon for lunch. Acting President Lewis said he "expected the miners to finish" today but otherwise he would make no comment. He appeared confident, however of a winning fight for acceptance of the President's plan when it comes to a final vote.

SIXTY MILLIONS IN ROAD BONDS

Because of the leaders of the incoming administration are said to be opposed to any increase in the tax rate for any purpose, a $60,000,000 road bond issue, it is said may be the solution of the road problem. Their plan also contemplates an automobile license tax sufficient to pay the interest on the bonds and create a sinking fund for their retirement. The proposition to have the General Assembly designate a system of State highways to be built with the bond issue is receiving considerable attention and the proposed horsepower tax put forward by Road Commissioner Joe S. Boggs is likely to be included.

BINGHAM TAX LAWYERS SUE GOV. MORROW

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 10.—Alleging that Edwin P. Morrow, while a candidate for governor, repeatedly and publicly stated his intention to discharge them as attorneys for the state in the Bingham inheritance tax cases, Robert G. Gordon, Hite Huffaker and James Garnett have filed suit in the Franklin Circuit Court to enjoin and restrain the new governor from discharging them.

Notice of the suit for the injunction was served on Governor Morrow at the home of John G. South, less than one hour after he and members of his family had left the inaugural ceremonies.

The attorneys claim in their petition that since his election Governor Morrow has reiterated his intention to discharge them, notwithstanding they have prepared the case so that the state will collect nearly $4,000,000 in taxes alleged to be due the Commonwealth. A hearing on the petition will be set by Judge Stout for the latter part of the week.

Carranza's Attitude Stops Mex Oil Supply

Complete new machinery of every sort will be installed and all improvements necessary to make it one the most up-to-date plants of the kind in any small city in the state. Mr. Evans knows just what an establishment of the kind needs, and will spare no pains or expense to give the patrons there the very best service. Mr. Joe A. Evans, who is just from a long-time service under the government, at Panama, will be in active charge of the plant and its operation, but his brother will assist him liberally and extensively and the two will make a team that will be hard to beat anywhere. The good people of Mt. Sterling and that community may be assured that they will see great changes for better in their laundry, as soon as there two "jiv" wires have been at the helm for a short time.

CUT OUT HONEYMOONS
Only those who have death or sickness in the family or who have important business missions will be permitted to travel while limited train service continues during the fuel famine. Even a wedding trip is taboo.

Persons who have sickness or death in family.
Business men who must go to plants to save them from harm.
Traveling salesmen.
Here is the order to the public in general:

T. M. SAUFLEY, Editor and Proprietor.

Subscriptions are strictly cash-in-advance to all and paper will be stopped promptly when subscription has expired.

Every Kentuckian who loves his state will wish Governor Edwin P. Morrow the fullest measure of success in his administration at Frankfort. It makes mighty little difference to us common people who is governor at Frankfort, or rather which party is at the helm of affairs. The world ticks on the same as ever, and good times and bad come and go, regardless. Ed Morrow has made many alluring promises of what he will do, and for one, we hope he makes good on every one of them. We've seen so many promises fall down that we'd like to see one make good, and especially at this time when there is so great an opportunity for real service to the people and the old state that we all love.

Gov. Black having rounded out his quota of Colonels, turned over the title-making job to Morrow Tuesday and a fresh batch of aid-de-camps may now be expected.

Tom and Mary

We know the sort of talcum powder that Tom Underwood, the pulchritudinous editor of the Hopkinsville New Era, uses after his matutinal shave. It's "Mary Garden," and Mary evidently expresses Tom a fresh case about each fortnight, with her compliments. We can positively imagine no other reason for the constant free advertising that Tom gives to Mary Garden and everything the popular actress does. Why, her salaried publicity agent or press representative doesn't do half the work for her that this gay "young" buck in Hoptown is putting over the boss. Here's his latest:

When Mary Garden, who told the New York reporters that when she left Paris women's skirts were getting shorter so fast that she'd been shocked to stay a day longer, graciously submitted to another interview on her arrival in Chicago. She expressed emphatic distaste, says the Chicago Tribune, for the painted—er limbs of the French girls, who have quit wearing hose.

"There is nothing more beautiful than a good looking leg in a black silk stocking. Don't you think so?"

She looked anxiously about from scribe to scribe.

"Well—er—I imagine so," ventured one, waxing vermilion.

"Humph! He imagines!" scoffed Mary. "Isn't he the pure young man?"

Naturally, Mary would think there is nothing more beautiful than a g. l. l. She has a perfect right, so to speak.

Another Proud Record Made By American Soldiers

General Crowder's report to the Secretary of War shows that from the day America declared war against Germany in April, 1917, up to June 30, 1919, 145 soldiers out of a little more than 4,000,000 were sentenced to death by army court martials for crimes of a capital character. Of these sentences, however, only 35 were carried out. One hundred and ten of those sentenced to death, escaped penal servitude. Twenty-five of the death sentences actually carried out were among soldiers on this side of the ocean; of the upwards of 2,000,000 soldiers who crossed the Atlantic, only ten were executed for capital crimes.

"This is an exceedingly small percentage, and speaks volumes for the discipline and conduct of our men. In France our army discipline was, as noted by a number of observers, considerably more rigid than that of either the British or French, and yet our men behaved so well that only ten men out of 2,000,000 were executed. General Crowder adds that not a man was executed in France for cowardice, for desertion to the enemy, for espionage.

"THE HONEYMOONERS"

Come To Opera House Here
Thursday Night, Dec. 11

The new musical comedy "The Honeymooners," which will be the opening play of the Orth and Coleman Merry Makers at the Opera House Thursday night is full of special features that make it universal in appeal. It is in two splendid acts with a rush and whirl of action that is little short of cyclonic funny and clever situations, bright and witty lyrics and dialogue, catchy and tuneful songs and novel dances—interpreted by a frisky, frivolous and jazzy beauty chorus has made this attraction the pace maker in the way of popular priced musical comedy organizations. Owing to the fuel restrictions and the length of the entertainment, the curtain will rise promptly at 8:15 in order to complete the performance by 10:30. On Friday night a new play will be offered entitled "The Search of a Million," and on Saturday matinee and night, the amusing comedy "Aladdin from Broadway" will be presented.

Beautiful costumes, scenery and electrical effects are carried by the company for each of the plays presented. During this engagement the prices will be 25c, 35c, and 50c plus war tax, with seats now on sale in advance. This attraction is guaranteed to be the best ever offered in this city at the prices charged or money refunded.

D. A. R. Meeting.

Yorick, the home of Mrs. E. Tut Burnam, in all of its beauty of artistic furnishing, was resplendent on Monday afternoon when the Boonesborough Chapter assembled in its parlors for the December meeting, and to enjoy the perfect hospitality for which this home is noted.

The programme for the afternoon was one of unusual interest. The first paper was given by Miss Mattie Tribble, who discussed in a very understanding manner "The Division of Austria-Hungary and its History," revealing the intensity of the situation in this dual monarchy which helped to bring on the World War. This paper was supplemented by a map study of Austria-Hungary before and since the war by Mrs. Keith, and by brief remarks by Mrs. E. T. Burnam and Mrs. Kellough, who had visited Vienna, Budapest and Prague cities of Austria-Hungary, and looked upon the Danube river, so famous in song and story.

The second paper for the afternoon was given by Miss Willie Kennedy on "Lace-Making in Belgium Before and After the War." There is always a rich and abiding cleverness in all that Miss Kennedy undertakes to do and the manner in which she treated this delightful subject, so dear always to the feminine heart, was most revealing.

Rare pieces of old mechin and rose points, a part of the family treasures, were passed around with a magnifying glass to be enjoyed by those present, and a realization of the vast number of women in the European countries who give their lives to the lace industry, gave a most interesting topic to be discussed during the social hours, over the exquisite refreshments.

Mrs. Burnam was assisted by Mrs. Kennedy and Miss Kennedy, who also reside at Yorick, and besides the members of the Boonesborough Chapter, the guests for the afternoon included Miss Susan Simmons, of Covington, Mrs. Eugene Walker and Miss Emma Watts.

HOW WEAK WOMEN ARE MADE STRONG

Mrs. Westmoreland Tells in the Following Letter.

Harrison, N. Y.—"When my first child was born I did not know about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and had a very hard time. I read in the newspaper about the Vegetable Compound and when my second child came I took it and was well during the whole time, and childbirth was a hundred times easier. Ever since then I have used it for any weakness and would not be without it for the world. I do all my work and am strong and healthy. I am nursing my baby, and I still take the Vegetable Compound as it keeps a woman in good health. You may publish my testimonial for the good of other women, if you choose to do so."—Mrs. C. WESTMORELAND, Harrison, N. Y.

Women who suffer from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, headaches and nervousness should lose no time in giving this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial, and for special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

PRICE BONNELLI MINSTRELS AT OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT

The Price Bonnelli Minstrels in keeping with their standard, will present "The Gypsy Serenaders" this season. This tuneful minstrel first part, is from the pen of James Bonnelli, who has spent his entire life in the minstrel game, and who knows how to write minstrels acts, and the press from the nearby cities are unanimous in their praise for this act. Not only is "The Gypsy Serenaders" amusing from a comedy standpoint, but the special, scenery, gorgeous wardrobe and special music, all lend their efforts in a small way to make the first part the success that it is, a minstrel first part second to none, and long to be remembered.

The olio of the Price Bonnelli Minstrels embraces some of the best known acts in vaudeville. Deddis and Devore are comedy performers. The Tiger City Four—some singing a quartet. Atmont and Dumont who are musicians that are a credit to their calling. The Higley Boys, from away down south, in their nonsensical duo, singing "I Want My Clothes Back." Hod-dog Joe Murphy, some yoddlers.

An Enviably Reputation Already Won

Hundreds of dealers who drove new Cleveland Sixes from the factory in Cleveland to their home cities have written the factory expressing their admiration and confidence in the car. What they all say is summed up in this sentence from one of them, "I can look any man in the face now and tell him the Cleveland is a regular automobile."

And that's what the Cleveland Six is—a regular automobile, an unusual automobile.

Hundreds of Cleveland Sixes, within the past four months, have undergone long, grueling, cross country drives, with honor. They have passed over great hill drives and long mountain climbs, plowed through mud and washouts and desert sands where other cars stall and stop.

Its power and endurance have already won the Cleveland an enviable reputation. This is not surprising, for skill and sincerity are built into this car by men who have contributed their genius to the building up of one of America's finest quality cars.

Tigers Like Water.

Tigers are extremely fond of bathing. In a zoo, if a tub be provided, they will eagerly make use of its facilities for ablution. They are first-rate swimmers, and in former days it was reckoned at Singapore that they "ate a Chinaman a night" swimming across from the mainland to get him.

Chinese Superstition. Superstition is rampant in China and when Chen Ying Yin, a trader in Straits Settlements, after his return to Keping, his own village, proposed to open the lands along Fui Nge mountain as a field for grazing, his suggestion could hardly be carried out as his villagers bitterly protested against the project on account of their belief in "Fung Sui," a superstition relating to the locations of places.

RECORD PRICE FOR HEMP NEXT YEAR

Is Predicted By Prof. Humphreys
Who Urges Growers To Sign Pledge

As a result of high water in the Kentucky river this fall, about half the crop of hemp seed produced in the Kentucky river valley, and which for years has afforded the State's chief supply has been swept away, causing a big shortage of seed for next year's crop.

The situation is declared by Prof. John R. Humphreys, head of the bureau of markets at the Kentucky Experiment Station at Lexington as much worse on this account than it has been in years.

However, he stated that thru prompt and careful conservation steps enough hemp seed has been procured to meet the needs of Kentucky hemp growers, and he confidently hopes that next year's acreage will be increased and that there will be a noticeable revival of this industry, especially since one of the largest hemp-break-mills in the country desires to locate in Lexington and is depending on a guaranty of 5,000 acres before it decides to locate there.

Ohio, Wisconsin, Indiana and California, which states have been growing considerable hemp seed, Prof. Humphreys says as have been depending upon Kentucky for their supply, and this year they will be unable to get their normal supply as a result of the shortage in this state. Kentucky farmers therefore, he says, have the greatest opportunity they have ever had to control the fibre production of the United States.

Prof. Humphreys calls attention to the fact that Russia, which produced 515,000 acres of hemp in normal times, is now out of the market, hence England, which imported the bulk of its hemp fibre from that country, is now calling on the United States to supply them it. So, next year he says, America, instead of importing 6,000 tons of corn from will be called on to export a large tonnage, which will have a tendency to boost the price of hemp grown in Kentucky. In the fact of these conditions, he predicts that Kentucky farmers who decide to grow hemp next year may expect a record price for all that they raise.

So far, Prof. Humphreys says, the farmers of the Bluegrass have pledged approximately 1,000 acres of hemp for next year, but he expects this to be largely increased during the next thirty days, practically assuring the location there of the $150,000 hemp-breaking plant which Chicago capitalists propose to establish in Lexington.

All Kentucky farmers who think of growing hemp next year, Prof. Humphreys says should indicate the amount they will raise by signing the pledge, so that it can go in on the guaranty to get the mill there. He has been informed that some farmers are preparing to plant hemp without signing the pledge, which he says is a mistake, as the promoters of the proposed mill will have no record of their crops and they will not be taken into consideration, when the 5,000 acres are pledged. All farmers who contemplate growing hemp next year, should decide on the proposition by the end of November, Prof. Humphreys says, as the Board of Commerce is going to put on a campaign to secure the proposed hemp mill, and every farmer for 15 miles around Lexington will be canvassed by teams sent out by the board with the view of securing their signatures to the pledge.

With the location of the proposed hemp-breaking mill at Lexington, it is predicted that other plants using hemp fibre in manufacturing will also locate in Lexington.

Snakes in Shaker Bend

Sunday evening John Gorham and Bill Winkle were walking below the construction camp of Lutes & Co., on the road repairs being made on the Lexington and Harrodsburg pike, near Brooklyn they spied three large copperheads lying on the rocks, near the den where several have already been killed during the summer. Gorham and Winkle promptly killed the three copperheads as a matter of public policy, and then went away feeling they had done some good in the world. It is surmised that the gigantic blast, which recently shook that end of Mercer county, wrecked a commissary, roused these snakes from their winter lethargy and at the same time roused their curiosity. They went out to see what was the matter and thus became victims of their uncontrollable desire to find out what was going on in their neighborhood.—Wiltmore Enterprise.

Peculiar Bird Caught

Mrs. Roberts, who lives just beyond Rowland, caught the other day a peculiar member of the bird or fowl species, known as a grebe. It has something of the appearance of a duck, but can neither walk nor fly. It is carried from one place to another on land by heavy wind and is much more at home on water than on land. It was brought to town and exhibited Saturday afternoon by N. W. Fowle and was later purchased by Sam Gentry.—Stanford Journal.

BAD BREATH.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects. Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c.
